

Alpharetta Food Truck Alley FAQ

The Alpharetta Food Truck Alley is a weekly gathering that will take place on Old Roswell Street with a variety of rotating food trucks, music, and fun children's activities. Approximately 6-10 food trucks will roll out some amazing eats with seating available along Old Roswell Street.

Which trucks can I expect to see at the event?

We generally host 6-8 rotating food trucks for each event and 8-10 on the last Thursday of every month. To find a list of trucks coming each week, please visit our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/foodtruckalley

Where can I park?

There is parking available at the following three locations:

- City Hall Parking Deck (2 Park Plaza)
- Downtown Parking Lot on Roswell Street (37 Old Roswell Street)
- Handicap parking available in each of these lots

Do you provide seating at this event?

Yes, we do have a limited number of uncovered, outdoor tables and chairs set up along Old Roswell Street. Please feel free to bring any additional chairs and blankets to this event.

Would this be a good event to bring my kids to?

Yes! This is a family friendly event with weekly kids' activities, such as a bounce house, sidewalk chalk, and a variety of other activities provided by sponsors.

Does it cost money to get into the event?

This is a public event with no admission fees. You are only responsible for paying for food and drink.

Will I be able to purchase alcohol at this event?

The food trucks will not be selling alcohol at this event, but you may purchase alcohol from the surrounding downtown restaurants.

Will you cancel this event if it is raining?

In the chance of inclement weather, the event may be cancelled as late as 2 hours prior to the scheduled start time. If you have any concerns, please visit our Facebook page (Alpharetta Food Truck Alley) to receive our most recent updates.

What about dogs or pets?

We do not encourage bringing your pets to the events due to the large crowds, music and food at the event. They will be happier at home!

Will you have an ATM onsite?

No ATMs on site, but generally, all of the food trucks accept major credit cards. If necessary, there is a Wells Fargo ATM located on Main Street and Academy.
