Elected City or County Officer Candidate for City or County Office

WHO MUST FILE A FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT:

Every public officer holding office in Georgia, and each person who qualifies as a candidate for election as a public officer for one of the offices listed below, and all others on the following list.

- Every constitutional officer;
- Every elected state official;
- The executive head of every state department or agency, whether elected or appointed;
- Each member of the General Assembly;
- Every elected county official, every elected county or area school superintendent, and every elected member of a local board of education; and
- Every elected municipal officer.

WHEN TO FILE A FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT:

A Financial Disclosure Statement is filed not before January 1 and not later than July 1 of each calendar year (except the year of election). The information to be provided shall be that from the preceding calendar year.

If a public officer chooses not to run for re-election or for another public office, no Financial Disclosure Statement is required for the year in which he or she qualifies to succeed him or her. A public officer shall not be deemed to hold the office in a year if he or she holds office for less than 15 days.

Requirements for Public Office: A Financial Disclosure Statement covering the period of the preceding calendar year shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day following the date of qualifying as a candidate. Candidates for state wide office file a Financial Disclosure Statement when qualifying for office. Only one Financial Disclosure Statement is required per calendar year.

Requirements for State Wide Candidates: Candidates for a public office elected state wide must file a Financial Disclosure Statement not later than seven days after qualifying or filing a notice of candidacy. State wide candidates must file a Financial Disclosure Statement in addition to the information required of other candidates for public office and the additional disclosure sections required of state wide candidates must be completed in the year of election filing.
