

CULTURAL SERVICES AUXILIARY GALLERY GUIDELINES

Auxiliary Galleries have been created in support of local artists and community interest groups at the Alpharetta Arts Center. Each gallery will host 4-8 exhibits per year from August through July. Galleries are open to the public, free admission, during business hours with varying weekend and night hours. While accepted exhibitions will be scheduled throughout the year, applications can be received for review only twice each year in October and April.

For list of current gallery exhibits visit: <https://www.alpharetta.ga.us/government/departments/recreation-parks/cultural-services>. To verify gallery hours or to participate in an art exhibit con-tact arts-culture@alpharetta.ga.us.

The Studio Gallery

DISCLAIMER

Exhibitions are based solely on the artwork submitted or proposed. Gallery Coordinator reserves the right to make final decisions on all work exhibited. The Gallery Coordinator oversees the curation of proposals, and acceptances are determined by a team of curators. Gallery space is assigned by the Gallery Coordinator. Exhibition proposals may not include works previously exhibited at the Alpharetta Arts Center and must have been created within the last 5 years.

With the Gallery Coordinator, Alpharetta's Cultural Services reserves the right to end the exhibit, and/or mandate dismantle of the exhibition.

Applications may be declined based on, but not limited to, quality of work, safety of works in exhibition, content appropriate for public facilities, lack of gallery ready status of each work, failure to complete all components of the application, and/or availability of dates requested exhibition.

Submission of proposal does not guarantee exhibition.

If the proposal is accepted, the exhibitor will be asked to sign the gallery agreement, which will offer information such as but not limited to, commissions, shipping, sale of artworks, insurance, artist, and gallery expectations. Exhibitors will receive acceptance via email with a proposed exhibition date within the artist's selected exhibit year. Artists must confirm offered dates within one week of acceptance; otherwise the exhibition period may be given to another submitting artist.

EXHIBITION REQUIREMENTS

Proposals may include works in all media and must represent living artists, both established and emerging reputations. Only 2-dimensional works, gallery ready, may be proposed for the Community Gallery; there is no display space for 3-dimensional works. The Studio Gallery can accommodate 2-dimensional and 3-dimensional works.

Applicants may be artists who exhibit nationally or internationally who are 18+ years old. (Artists 15-17 years old may submit an application with the guidance of parent/guardian). Artists may submit works in any artistic medium, five years old or less.

Accepted exhibitors must assist Gallery Coordinator and Staff with the installation.

Proposals are reviewed by the curator, the cultural services manager and the cultural arts coordinator. Preferences is given to proposals that or organized, fully inventoried, and professional in presentation. Exhibitions will be on display for 1-2 months. Deadline for submissions will be October 30 or April 30 of each fiscal year.

SCHEDULES:

- Community Gallery Exhibitions are scheduled yearly, 6 months in advance, and rotate approximately every 2 months.
- Studio Gallery Exhibitions are scheduled every 6 months, 2-3 months in advance, and rotate every 1-2 months.
